TDECU Named 2022 Top Workplace

TDECU, Houston's largest credit union, has been named a Top Workplace by the Houston Chronicle. TDECU is ranked #12 in the Large Companies division. This marks the second year in a row the credit union has received this award.

The Top Workplace Award recognizes organizations across the country that have built exceptional workplace cultures. More than 70% of TDECU employees participated in the anonymous survey conducted by Engage over the summer.

"This honor belongs to our employees. At TDECU, we are focused on helping people navigate their financial journeys. Which means through their commitment our Employees earn the trust of our Members to manage their hard-earned funds and help them make some of most important financial decision of their lives,” says TDECU Chief Human Resource Officer, Qiara Suggs. “Our wonderful employees show up every day with a mindset of service to our Members and each other.”

TDECU employs more than 900 people across Texas, to serve their 377-thousand Members. Suggs says the credit union has focused on improving the employee experience by encouraging an inclusive, collaborative culture throughout the organization. TDECU also has a competitive benefits package, flexible working arrangements for some roles, and tuition reimbursement for both full and part-time employees.
